The flagship book in the Keepers of the Earth® series, this environmental classic, now in paperback, teaches children respect and stewardship for the Earth and all living things.

Beginning with Native American stories, this invaluable and time-honored resource provides readers with an abundance of hands-on activities that will inspire children to understand and appreciate Native American cultures and the Earth.

Excerpt: Constellation Map

Make a map of the circumpolar constellations by gluing "stars" (dried beans and grains) onto a cardboard "sky" ... more

Review:

... a wonderful treasure of stories and environmentally related activities for children of all ages. If you are a storyteller or enjoy tales about Native Americans, then this book belongs in your library ... more
